

CX SW/SJ Concl'd.

1. A method for processing source information comprising the steps of:
parsing input source information into elements;
identifying a source placeable element by predetermined criteria; and converting at least a portion of said source placeable element into a target placeable element.

C2 SW/SJ Concl'd.

22. A method for processing source information according to claim 1, wherein converting at least a portion of said source placeable element requires a calculation for converting a source currency into a target currency, said calculation for converting is automatic.

*C3 SW/SJ
Concl'd.*

23. A method for processing source information according to claim 1, wherein converting at least a portion of said source placeable element requires a mathematical calculation, said mathematical calculation is automatic.

*C4 SW/SJ
Concl'd.*

24. A method for processing source information comprising the steps of:
parsing input source information into elements;
identifying a source placeable element by predetermined criteria; and calculating at least a portion of said source placeable element into a target placeable element.